

SECTION E

ALL INSCRIPTIONS, OR TEXT, IN BLUE INDICATE UNCERTAINTY ABOUT THE ENTRY

SITE	NAME	DEATH	COMMENTS
E1	HALL, Ellen	1860	Slab leaning slightly and algae and lichen stained. Quite readable.
E1	HALL, Mary Ann sister of Ellen	1867
E1	HALL, James brother of Ellen	1869
E1	HALL, Elizabeth wo James	1878
E2	FLEETHAM, Mary do George & Mary	1785	Poor condition but clear stained with algae and lichen growth.
E3	PICKE(RING), (Th)omas	1760	Very bad condition. Only small fragment remains at the bottom of the slab.
E4	WHEATLEY, John so Joseph	1860	Some lichen and flaking but inscription intact.
E4	WHEATLEY, Joseph father of above	1879
E5	Church Boiler House
E6	KELSEY, Mary wo John	1777	Good condition. Some algal staining.
E6	KELSEY, Ann do John & Mary	1771
E6	KELSEY, John	1806
E7	CROFTON, Elizabeth Jane	1865	Lichen & Moss covered but in good condition.
E7	CROFTON, Thomas	1887
E8	TINDALE, Mary infant do John & Mary	1863	Good condition. Some algal staining.
E8	TINDALE, Mary wo John	1865
E8	TINDALE, Rosa	1880
E8	TINDALE, John	1898
E8	TINDALE, Clara Isabella	1901
E8	TINDALE, John Frederick	1909
E9	MILLS, Henry	1807	Sandstone, Large horizontal slab. Worn inscription
E10	FORSTER, Jane	1724	Frosterley marble slab.
E11	RICHARDSON, Peter	1752	Was 101 when he died. Stained by Algal growth. Clear text.
E12	BAINBRIDGE, Mary do Rev. Edward & Mary	?	Lichen & algae infested. Difficult to read particularly at the bottom.
E13	GREGSON, Rev. John	1781	Some lichen but fairly clear.
E14	UNKNOWN	?	Lichen covered. No inscription found.
E15	BUSBY, John	1805	Some erosion but still fairly clear – nice carving.
E15	BUSBY, Thirkield so John & Isabell	1806
E15	BUSBY, Isabell wo John	1825
E15	BUSBY, Isabella do John & Isabella	1835
E16	MARSHALL, Sarah wo Richard	1753	Top very clear. Bottom lichen infested and illegible.
E16	MARSHALL, Mary do George & Sarah	1770
E16	MARSHALL, Richard	1789

E16	MARSHALL, Jane 2 nd wo Richard	1804
E16	MARSHALL, George so Richard & Jane	1806
E16	MARSHALL, Sarah wo George	1808
E17	HELMETOW, John	1758	Poor condition.
E17	HELMETOW, Barbara wo John	1752
E18	RICHARDSON, Peter	1846	Very badly affected by algal & lichen growth. Considerable erosion in parts. Text very difficult to read.
E18	RICHARDSON, Elizabeth wo Peter	?
E18	RUTHERFORD, James Johnson so John & Jane Rutherford	?
E18	RICHARDSON, Jane do Peter & Elizabeth	1853
E19	OLIVER, Mary wo William	1821	Very clear. Algal staining.
E19	OLIVER, William Rutherford brother of the above	1821
E19	OLIVER, William	1825
E20	ORD, Jonathan	1806	Clear. Lichen & algal growth.
E21	TINDALE, William	1901	Heavy lichen infestation but interesting with a quote.
E22	ORD, John	1822	Showing signs of erosion. Badly algal & lichen staining.
E22	ORD, Margaret (his widow)	1825
E23	OLIVER, William	1845	Very good condition. Some algal staining.
E23	ANGUS, William (cousin)	1866
E23	ANGUD, Robert so William ANGUS	1867
E23	ANGUS, Robert nephew of Robert ANGUS	1876
E23	ANGUS, Oliver,	1881
E23	ANGUS, Jane wo Oliver ANGUS	1883
E24	HARLAND, Hannah wo Thomas	?	Slab broken and covered in lichen. Little inscription visible.
E25	UNKNOWN, John	1801	Flaking and very badly eroded over the whole area
E26	APP????, Richard	1769	Flaking and very badly damaged on the top half of the stone.
E27	WEATHERELL, John	1824	Some lichen but in good condition with clear inscription.
E27	WEATHERELL, Mary Jane do John	1831
E27	WEATHERELL, Robert so John	1842
E27	BIRD, Margared	1865
E27	BIRD, William husband of Margared	1874
E28	STOCKBURN, Mary wo Richard	1794	Reasonable condition.
E29	OLIVER, Thomas	1795	Some bad flaking in the lower half of the slab which has resulted in the loss of some text. Algal staining.
E29	OLIVER, Elizabeth granddaughter of the above.	1796
E29	OLIVER, Elizabeth wo Thomas	1807
E29	OIIVER, Catherine Hellena (daughter-in-law to Thomas Oliver)	1822
E30	OLIVER, Abraham	1802	Slab flaking badly and a lot of text has already been lost. Also lichen infestation.
E30	OLIVER, Faith wo Abraham	1802
E31	OLIVER, Abraham	1853	Lichen & algae covered but readable – some erosion.
E32	SCOTT, Margaret wo Thomas	1829	Good condition. Some algal staining.

E32	SCOTT, Thomas husband of Margaret	1832
E32	SCOTT, Thomas so Thomas & Margaret	1846
E33	HALL, William so Ephraim & Eleanor	1800	Good condition. Some algal staining.
E33	FRIEND, Thomasine grandmother of William	1804
E33	HALL, Ephraim father of William	1816
E33	HALL, Eleanor wife of Ephraim	1837
E34	UNKNOWN, Ann	?
E35	PICKERING, Thomas	?	Badly worn and has sunk in the earth. Lower portion not visible.
E36	PICKERING, Thomas	1814	Badly eroded and text very difficult to read. Algal & lichen infestation.
E36	HADDRICK, Elizabeth Fenwick	?
E36	PICKERING, Alice do Thomas & Elizabeth	?
E37	PICKERING, Elizabeth wo John	1854	Badly algae stained. Text eroding at bottom of slab.
E37	HADDRICK, Margaret niece of Elizabeth	1854
E37	HADDRICK, John brother of Elizabeth	1856
E37	HADDRICK, John so John	1856
E38	WILLINGTON, John Welton	1826	Clear. Some algal staining.
E38	WILLINGTON, Margery do John	?
E39	MANN, Joseph so George & Margaret	1849	Part of the headstone is in good condition but a large central section is badly eroded away and almost impossible to read. Some algal staining.
E39	MANN, George	?
E39	MANN, Margaret do George & Margaret	1851
E39	MANN, Margaret wo John	1877
E40	LIN, Mary Jane do Foster & Jane BELL	1860	Some lichen and algal staining but fairly clear.
E41	BUTTON, John George	1877	Spots of lichen but clear inscription.
E42	UNKNOWN	?	Inscription completely eroded away. Nothing under moss.